

National Science Foundation Senior Executive Service Vacancy

ANNOUNCEMENT NUMBER: $20060002 OPEN: 10/11/2005 CLOSE: 11/14/2005

POSITION VACANT: Director, Division of Environmental Biology (DEB), Directorate for Biological Sciences

LOCATION: Arlington, Virginia

The National Science Foundation Directorate for Biological Sciences (BIO) is seeking qualified candidates for the position of Director, Division of Environmental Biology (DEB). DEB supports fundamental research on populations, species, communities, and ecosystems. The Division is structured in four clusters – Ecological Biology that supports research on natural and managed ecological systems, primarily in terrestrial, wetland, and freshwater habitats; Ecosystems Science that supports research on natural, managed, and disturbed ecosystems, including those in terrestrial, freshwater, and wetland (including salt marsh) environments; Population & Evolutionary Processes that focuses on population properties that lead to variation within and among populations; Systematic Biology and Biodiversity Inventories that support the general science of systematics, whose three main missions are: to discover, describe, and inventory global species diversity; and analyze and organize the information.

Position will be filled on a one to three year Senior Executive Service (SES Limited Term appointment or on an Intergovernmental Personnel Act (IPA) assignment basis).

Senior Executive Service (SES) Limited Term Appointment The Senior Executive Service (SES) covers managerial positions above GS-15 in the Federal Service. The Federal pay range for Senior Executive Service positions is $107,550 to $149,200 per annum. Persons appointed to the SES are eligible for health benefits, life insurance, social security, Federal retirement and thrift savings plan coverage, and participate in the Federal leave system. Competitive status is not required, veteran's preference does not apply and there are no grade restrictions.

Individuals eligible for an IPA assignment with a Federal agency include employees of State and local government agencies or institutions of higher education, Indian tribal governments, and other eligible organizations in instances where such assignments would be of mutual benefit to the organizations involved. Initial assignments under IPA may be made for a period of up to two years. The individual remains an employee of the home institution and cost-sharing arrangements are generally negotiated between NSF and the home institution.

STATEMENT OF DUTIES: Provides leadership and direction for the Division of Environmental Biology (DEB) and serves as the Foundation's spokesperson in the areas of ecological, population, and systematic biology; ecosystem science; and long-term research in environmental biology. Assesses needs and trends in research and education related to the Division's programs, implements overall strategic planning and policy setting, provides leadership and guidance to Division staff members, determines funding requirements, prepares and justifies budget estimates, balances program needs, allocates resources, oversees the evaluation of proposals and recommendations for awards and declinations, and represents NSF to relevant external groups. Fosters partnerships with other Divisions, Directorates, Federal agencies, scientific organizations and the relevant community.
